Safety

The Safety & Health Committee keeps members updated on current safety issues and upcoming challenges. Committee members participate in OSHA rule-making and serve on regulatory committees.

Advocacy

STI/SPFA represents its members on important issues affecting the steel fabrication industry. The Association works closely with key organizations, departments, and members of Congress, advocating for positive regulations for our industry.

Industry Promotion

STI/SPFA promotes and unites the steel plate fabricated products industry by marketing steel as the material of choice. STI/SPFA provides the latest industry and association news, including technical resources, education programs, and safety and health information.

STI/SPFA Resources

The screenshot shows the STI/SPFA website homepage. At the top is a blue navigation bar with a 'Logout' link. Below it is a black navigation bar with links for PRODUCTS, FIND A MEMBER, SAFETY, EDUCATION, EVENTS, NEWS, STORE, ABOUT, and JOIN. A banner for the 'Beeline Purchasing Program' is visible, featuring safety gear and the Beeline logo. The main content area has a red heading 'FIELD ERRECTED STORAGE TANKS' followed by introductory text. Below this is a 'Find a Member' button. Three featured articles are shown with images and buttons: 'Types of Steel Storage Tanks' (Learn More), 'Century Club' (View Honorees), and 'Field Erected Product Awards' (See Winners).

The screenshot shows a 'Tank Talk' newsletter article. The header features the title 'TANK TALK' in a white box over a background image of industrial pipes. Below the title is the subtitle 'STEEL TANK INSTITUTE/STEEL PLATE FABRICATORS ASSOCIATION NEWSLETTER' and the STI/SPFA logo. The main article title is 'Safety Factors in AWWA Water Pipe Design'. The text discusses safety factors based on design criteria for AWWA standard water pipe. To the right of the text is an image of workers in safety gear installing a large pipe in a trench. Below the article is a 'Read the full paper...' link. A second section is titled 'STI/SPFA Recently Featured in Business View Magazine' and includes an image of several large steel storage tanks, with a 'Read the full article.' link below it.
